Bath Sunday Market Code of Conduct

Bath Sunday Market vendors and/or their representatives will adhere to the following:

- Demonstrate the highest standards of personal behavior and integrity at all times
- Conduct themselves in a courteous and respectful manner and serve as a positive role model for others
- Treat everyone with respect
- Abstain from physical or verbal abuse and not tolerate it from others
- Comply with equal opportunity and anti-discrimination laws
- Not possess, sell, or consume controlled substances at the Market
- Operate vehicles and other equipment in a responsible manner
- Abstain from any criminal activity
- No smoking is permitted in the area during Market hours

Vendors are expected to present an attractive, professional appearance:

- Business name and address should be prominently displayed
- It is the responsibility of vendors to be knowledgeable about municipal, provincial, and federal regulations applying to the labelling, measuring, and health and safety of their products
- Vendors are responsible for knowing and conforming to the food safety, packaging, labeling, and any other requirements that apply to their products and for satisfying Eastern Ontario Health Unit requirements for food safety
- Products should be attractively displayed and in accordance with all relevant health and safety regulations and the Farm Products Grades and Sales Acts
- Prices should be prominently and clearly displayed
- Vendors must maintain a visibly high standard of personal hygiene and cleanliness and be properly attired
- Vendors are encouraged to list product ingredients to safeguard those with allergies and food sensitivities
- Vendors should keep their space clean and take away their own garbage and recycling
