

PRESS RELEASE:

Sunday Market in Bath Returns

April, 2026

On Sunday, May 10, 2026, the Sunday Market in Bath returns for another vibrant season at beautiful Centennial Park in Bath.

This year's market will feature a fantastic mix of new and returning vendors, with a strong focus on local farmers and producers. Each week, visitors can connect directly with the people who grow and create their food, making it a true celebration of local.

The market will offer something for everyone, including live music every week, delicious onsite food and drink, and kids' crafts happening throughout the season. With a rotating lineup of vendors and experiences, no two Sundays will feel the same.

Market Manager Tarra Williamson shares, "We're excited to welcome everyone back for another amazing season. The market has become a place to shop, connect, and spend time together—it's truly a Sunday destination."

Whether you're coming for fresh produce, a great meal, or a relaxing morning in the park, the Sunday Market in Bath offers an experience that goes beyond shopping.

The Sunday Market in Bath runs Sundays from 10am–2pm from May 10th through October 25th, 2026. For more information, visit www.sundaymarketinbath.com
